WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT?

FOR WHOM?

WHAT ARE THE PROJECT'S
OUTCOMES?

WHAT ARE OUR OBJECTIVES?

- _ InnoTrain promotes learning in the workplace, the so-called „work based learning“ (WBL)
- _ Work-based learning aims to acquire knowledge, skills and competences by performing and reflecting on tasks in a professional environment
- _ VET should become the first choice for the design and implementation of WBL, in particular to close the gap between education and the labor market

Professionals in

- _ Vocational education/universal education
- _ Companies
- _ Social/local facilities
- _ Youth associations

The partnership

- _ creates a bridge between education and the labor market
- _ tests and conducts several trainings for practitioners in the field of VET businesses
- _ makes efforts to reduce youth unemployment and skills mismatch by making more use of WBL elements in VET
- _ involves actively social partners in the process of designing and monitoring WBL

Our consortium is working on

- _ new training programs for participating EU countries
- _ the development of innovative training tools
- _ an European network to promote WBL
- _ promoting effective capacity building for key professionals
- _ increasing opportunities for quality training in the workplace for students and trainees
- _ a long-term policy for innovation and employment horizons in VET
